Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service

On January 17, 2022, as part of the GW celebration of the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. students, faculty, staff, alumni and community members are invited to participate in a day of service, reflection, and leadership development. This year we expect over 500 participants to gather at 11:00 am for the opening program with keynote speakers and then head to service sites and leadership workshops both on and off campus, in person and virtually. Students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members can all participate as part of a group or as individuals.
